The languages of publication are English and German. Submissions should be in double spacing, with wide margins, preferably A4-size. The author’s name and the title of the paper should be centred, the one above the other. The title should be capitalized and the author's name in upper and lower case. Section headings should be italicized and start from the left. The author's (institutional) address should be written in italics after the article (to the left), but precede notes and bibliography.

In the main body of the text, the first line of each paragraph must be indented except for the first paragraph and paragraphs which immediately follow section headlines or drawings, graphs and illustrations. Long quotations should also be indented and not given quotation marks. Quotations of less than two lines should be given in single quotation marks. Quotations within quotations must be given in double quotation marks. If the second of a pair of quotation marks stands at the same point as another mark of punctuation, the quotation mark precedes (unless the other mark is itself part of the quoted matter). Glosses are given in single quotation marks, while cited word forms and letters are italicized in the text. Reference to a publication should take such a form as: Penzl (1975:58) or (Penzl 1975:58).

Footnotes should be double-spaced, numbered consecutively and gathered after the main text (but before the reference list) under the heading Notes (Anmerkungen). The Bibliography (Bibliographie), which should also be double-spaced, must be placed at the very end of the article and be presented in the following way:
